Project

Field(s)	Heritage, Combined / Interdisciplinary Arts, Theatre.
Description	The project's main idea is to promote the cultural heritage of the Battle of Lepanto (1571). In this battle participated many European and non European countries and its impact can be found in many forms of fine art, such as painting, theatre, literature and music. The goal of this project is to promote this cultural heritage throughout Europe through a series of actions and also to inspire new artists to create unique works themed by this great battle.
